General Notice 2027 of 2026.

COMPETITION ACT [CHAPTER 14:28]

Notice of Compliance Monitoring Investigation: Acquisition of 25.94% Shareholding in Medical Investments Limited, trading as Avenues Clinic by CIMAS Medical Aid Society)

IT is hereby notified, that the Competition and Tariff Commission has, in terms of section 33(5) of the Competition Act [Chapter 14:28], commenced a compliance monitoring investigation regarding its Order on the merger between CIMAS Medical Aid Society ("CIMAS") and Medical Investments Limited, trading as Avenues Clinic ("Avenues Clinic"), which was conditionally approved in 2022.

Section 33(5) of the Act empowers the Competition and Tariff Commission ("the Commission") to undertake compliance monitoring investigations to ascertain the extent to which its Order is being complied with by the merging parties, and to issue any further orders should non-compliance be found.

Commission's Order

The acquisition of a 25.94% shareholding in Medical Investments Limited, trading as Avenues Clinic by CIMAS Medical Aid Society was approved subject to the following conditions, that:

(a) CIMAS Medical Aid Society, its subsidiaries, affiliates and successors-in-title shall—

(i) continue to process all healthcare service providers' claims, on non-discriminatory terms and conditions;

(ii) submit, annually for the next five (5) years, commencing twelve (12) months from the date of implementation of the transaction, a report showing the extent of compliance with the above condition; and

(b) Avenues Clinic, its subsidiaries, affiliates, and successors-in-title shall—

(i) continue to offer services, including to non-CIMAS

Medical Aid Society members on non-discriminatory terms and conditions;

(ii) not discriminate on access of the facilities by medical specialist based on affiliation to the merging parties;

(iii) submit, annually for the next five (5) years, commencing twelve (12) months from the date of implementation of the transaction, a report showing the extent of compliance with (i) and (ii) above.

Call for Public Representations

In view of the foregoing, the Commission hereby gives notice to all interested stakeholders and the general public to submit their written representations stating how they may have been affected by the conduct of CIMAS Medical Aid Society and/or Avenues Clinic, as a result of the merger that was conditionally approved by the Commission in 2022.

Written submissions should be submitted to the Commission not later than 14 days from the date of publication of this Notice. Emails may be sent to director@competition.co.zw and/or enquiries@competition.co.zw or hard copies submitted to the Director Competition and Tariff Commission, No. 23, Broadlands Road, Emerald Hill, Harare, Zimbabwe.

If you wish to seek further details and/ or clarification on any aspect of the Commission's investigations, you may contact Ms. L. Jayaguru, on Tel: (+263) 775 831 895l (+263) 242853127-32 l or e-mail: loveness@competition.co.zw or angwendere@competition.co.zw

It should be noted that the commencement of this investigation does not presuppose that CIMAS or Avenues Clinic has violated the conditions of approval, rather, the Commission seeks to objectively ascertain the merging parties' level of compliance.

All representations submitted to the Commission will be treated in strict confidence and will be utilised exclusively for the purpose of this investigation.

MS E. RUPARANGANDA,
16-10-2026. Director Competition and Tariff Commission.

Mushure J.

Harare, 16th March and 2nd October, 2026

Provisional Liquidation

T. Zhuwarara for the applicant
G. R. J. Sithole for the first and second respondents
No appearance for the third respondent

Mushure J:

INTRODUCTION

1. In this application, the applicant seeks the provisional liquidation of the first respondent, a company duly registered in accordance with the laws of Zimbabwe. The appplication is made in terms of section 6(1)(a) and (b) of the Insolvency Act [Chapter 6:07].

2. The application avers that it advanced a loan of US$100 000,00 (one hundred thousand United States dollars) to the first respondent on or about 19th May, 2025. The terms of the loan agreement were that it would accrue interest at the rate of 10 percent per month and it was payable within one month from the date of signature. The applicant further avers that the first respondent failed, refused or neglected to repay the capital amount, thereby breaching the loan agreement.

3. The third respondent under section 41(2). Consequently, I leave the selection and appointment of the liquidator to the third respondent in accordance with the law.

ORDER

1. The first respondent, Love Your Food (Private) Limited, be and is hereby placed under provisional liquidation pending the grant of a final liquidation order or the discharge of this provisional order.

2. The third respondent, be and is hereby directed to, as soon as possible, but no longer than forty-eight hours after receipt of this order, appoint a qualified person as liquidator of the first respondent.

3. A rule nisi is hereby issued calling upon the first respondent and all interested persons to appear before this court, sitting at Harare on 11th November, 2026, to show cause why—

(a) a final order should not be made placing the first respondent under liquidation; and

(b) the costs of this application should not be costs of liquidation.

4. A copy of this order shall be served at the registered office of the first respondent.

5. The applicant shall cause this order to be published once in the Government Gazette and once in The Herald newspaper by not later than Friday, 16th October, 2026.

6. Any person intending to oppose or support the application on the return day of this order shall give due notice to the applicant at 3, Pascoe Avenue, Belgravia, Harare and serve on the applicant a copy of any affidavit which he/she files with the Registrar of the High Court.—Mushure J., Wintertons, applicant's legal practitioners, Jonasi Attorneys, first and second respondents' legal practioners. 067310f

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Conditions of Acceptance of Copy

FAILURE to comply with any of the following conditions will result in the rejection of copy, and no responsibility can be accepted if such rejection should affect any date contained in such copy or any requirement of publication on a specific date.

Persons drafting any kind of notices are strongly advised to follow the guidance offered in—

(a) the Instructions Relating to the Drafting and Typing of Legislation (Attorney-General's Circular 1 of 1978); and

(b) the Manual of Style for the Drafting and Preparation of copy published by Printflow (Private) Limited; which two booklets are intended for complementary use.

In these conditions, other than where a particular kind of copy is specified, "copy" means copy for all matter contained in the Gazette itself and for subsidiary legislation issued as supplements to the Gazette.

1. (1) Other than by prior arrangements, only original typing is accepted.

(2) Carbon-copies are not normally acceptable, other than in cases where the original typing has to be legally retained, elsewhere, as, for example, in the case of a proclamation.

(3) Computer print-outs are not accepted automatically, as discussion may be necessary with regard to the extra time and costs involved.

2. (1) All copy must be clear and legible, and there must be double or one and a half spacing between the lines.

(2) Any corrections or alterations made by the originator, must be clearly effected in blue or black ink, using editorial marks—not proof-reader's marks:

Provided that any copy containing extensive alterations will be rejected.

3. (1) Copy must appear on one side only of each sheet of paper.

(2) Except as is provided in subsection (2) of section 8, paper must not exceed 210 millimetres in width.

(3) If copy comprises two or more sheets of paper, all sheets must be numbered consecutively, in arabic figures, preferably in the top right-hand corner.

(4) Where any matter is added after the copy has been prepared, and such additional matter results in one or more sheets being inserted between those already numbered, all sheets must be renumbered from there onwards—not, for instance 7, 7b, 8, et cetera.

4. Photographic copy or copy produced on a duplicating machine may be accepted if it is abundantly clear.

5. (1) Should any copy—

(a) exceed 10 pages of double-spaced typing on size A4 paper; or

(b) contain tabular or other matter which involves complicated setting; it will be classed as "lengthy" copy, and will be required to be submitted not less than 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which it is to be published.

(2) Lengthy copy may be accepted at less than 21 days' notice if—

(a) the work involved is of a straight forward and non-tabular nature; and

(b) the total volume of work on hand for the time being permits its acceptance.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these conditions, any copy—

(a) which is of national importance, and which is originated as a matter of urgent necessity, may, by prior arrangement, be accepted late for the current week;

(b) may, due to shortage of staff or to technical considerations, be delayed until conditions permit its processing.

7. Copy must not be submitted as part of a letter or a requisition. It must appear on a separate sheet of paper, on which there is no instruction or other extraneous matter.

8. (1) In cases where notices have to be published in tabular form, copy must be drafted exactly as it is to appear. If printed forms for any such notices are unavailable, advertisers must prepare their own forms. While it is not necessary to include the preamble, the box-headings must be there, and, where applicable, the number of the form; for example, "Insolvency Regulations—Form 3".

(2) In the case of copy for tabular notices, the provision of subsection (2) of section 3 does not apply.

9. Copy for all advertisements, whether sent by post or delivered by hand, must be accompanied by a requisition or a letter which clearly sets out—

(a) the name and address of the advertiser; and

(b) the debtor's code number, if any; and

(c) the required date or dates of publication.

10. If a typographical error occurs in the Gazette, it is rectified as soon as possible by a correcting notice without charge to the ministry or department concerned, subject to the following conditions—

(a) that such error is reported to the editor within three months from the date of publication; and

(b) that the relevant copy, upon re-examination, is proved to be abundantly clear; and

(c) that the correction of such error is legally necessary.

(2) If a drafting error is not detected before publication, the originating ministry or department is required to draft its own correcting notice, take it to the Attorney-General for vetting and pay for such notice to be published.

(3) For the removal of doubt—

(a) a typographical error is made by a typographer;

(b) a typist's error is classed as a drafting error by reason of the fact that the officer responsible for drafting failed to check the typist's work.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Authorized Scale of Charges, Times of Closing and Subscription Rate as from 1st April, 2019

Charges for statutory instruments

THE charge for printing statutory instruments is USD0,07 per A5 page and USD0,14 per A4 page multiplied by 2 000 (being the number of copies printed).

Charges for advertisements including general notices

THE area of advertisement multiplied by USD0,80.

Notices which have to appear in tabular form across the full width of the page, such as lost insurance policies, deceased estates, insolvent estates, company liquidations, notices in terms of the Insolvency Act [Chapter 6:04], changes of companies' names: US$30,00 cash per entry.

Notices of intention to alienate a business or the goodwill of a business or any goods or property forming part of a business, otherwise than in the ordinary course of business shall cost USD120,00 cash for the three consecutive publications.

Except in the case of approved accounts, remittances must accompany all copy of advertisements, failing this, copy will be returned with an assessment of charges.

Times of closing

The Gazette closes for the receipt of copy for all notices to be published in the normal columns, and for statutory instruments at 11 a.m. on the Monday preceeding the Friday of publication.

Copy for all notices to be set in tabular form must be received by 11 a.m. on the Friday preceeding the Friday of publication.

Any copy which is received after the respective closing-times will automatically be held over for insertion in the Gazette of the following week, in which case no responsibility can be accepted if the purpose of the notice is thereby nullified.

When public holidays occur, the normal closing-times are varied, and such variations are notified in the Gazette in advance.

All copy must be addressed to Printflow (Private) Limited, and either posted to P.O. Box CY 341, Causeway, or delivered direct to the company, in George Silundika Avenue (between Sixth Street and Epton Street), Harare. Envelopes should be marked: Gazette copy—urgent.

Regular advertisers and subscribers are requested to advise immediately of any change of address.

Subscription rate

The subscription rate for the Gazette for half year is RTGS$720,00, for soft copy and RTGS$1200,00, for hard copy cash/swipe/EcoCash/transfer payable in advance, to the Chief Executive Officer, Printflow (Private) Limited, and may commence with the first issue of any month.

M. MUTETE,
Publications Officer.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE

Submission of Copy for Government Gazette Statutory Instruments and Notices

IT is hereby notified, for general information, that it is necessary to draw attention to the "Conditions for Acceptance of Copy", which appears in every issue of the Gazette; and particularly the need to submit lengthy copy, in the case of Statutory Instruments, at least 21 days before the date of closing for the Gazette in which the notice is to be published.

During the past few months or so there have been many cases where urgent copy for subsidiary legislation, which requires the signature of the President or a minister to give it effect, and which is of national importance, has been sent in for publication in the Gazette after closing-time. Whilst I acknowledge that it is the duty of Printflow (Private) Limited to give certain notices special treatment, I am, however, of the view that a Gazette Extraordinary has tended to be a must rather than a matter of priority in respect of unwarranted delays of urgent copy.

While every effort will continue to be made to publish Extraordinaries on the required dates, copy must be submitted timeously so that it can be programmed into the printing-work-flow as soon as it is available.

G. MAUPA,
Gazette Editor.

NOTICES OF LIQUIDATION AND DISTRIBUTION ACCOUNTS LYING FOR INSPECTION

(pursuant to section 52 of the Administration of Estates Act [Chapter 6:01])

Notice is hereby given that copies of liquidation and distribution accounts in the under-mentioned estates will be open for the inspection of all persons interested therein for a period of 21 days (or longer if stated) from the dates specified, or from the date of publication hereof, whichever may be the later. Accounts will lie for inspection at the offices specified below. Objections to an account should be lodged with the Master, Harare, or the Assistant Master, Bulawayo, as the case may be. Should no objections be lodged to the account during the period of inspection, the executor concerned will proceed to make payments in accordance therewith.

ADMINISTRATION OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH SYSTEM

ESTABLISHMENT AND FUNCTIONS OF OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH DEPARTMENT

4 Establishment of Occupational Safety and Health Department

(1) There is hereby established a Department to be known as the Department of Occupational Safety and Health.

(2) The Department referred to in subsection (1) shall be a department in the Authority.

(3) The functions of the Department shall be the following—

(a) promoting occupational safety and health;

(b) formulating and ensuring safety and health standards and guidelines on the working environment after consultation with relevant organisations;

(c) enforcing occupational safety and health requirements in terms of this Act;

(d) arranging for the collection, compilation, tabulation and recording of statistics relating to the incidents or cases of occupational diseases and injuries;

(e) recommending to the Minister on matters related to occupational safety and health;

(f) implementing the National Social Security Authority (Accident Prevention and Workers' Compensation Scheme) (Prescribed Matters) Notice, 1990;

(g) carrying out and supporting research in occupational safety and health; and

(h) performing any other function necessary for the achievement of occupational safety and health.

(4) The Department shall be headed by a Director who shall—

(a) exercise general supervision and direction of the Department; and

(b) be responsible for the occupational safety and health functions of the Authority and accountable to the General Manager.

(5) The Director shall be assisted by such number of staff as may be necessary for the purpose of implementing the provisions of this Act.

(6) Notwithstanding any other Act, the competent authority for the occupational safety and health shall be the Authority.

5 Establishment of Medical Bureau of Occupational Diseases

(1) There is hereby established a Bureau of the Department to be called the Medical Bureau of Occupational Diseases which shall be appointed by the Authority.

(2) The Bureau shall consist of the following five members—

(a) one medical practitioner with specialised knowledge and experience in occupational health medicine; and

(b) one physician who shall be knowledgeable and experienced in occupational lung conditions; and

(c) one radiologist; appointed by the Authority from a list of three names respectively submitted to it by Medical and Dental Practitioners Council of Zimbabwe;

(d) one medical practitioner employed as a mine medical practitioner and specialised in occupational medicine chosen by the Authority from a list of three names submitted to it by organisation representing employers in the mining industry;

(e) the Director or his or her delegate, who shall be an ex-officio member of the Bureau.

(3) The members shall amongst themselves elect a chairperson.

(4) Members of the Bureau shall hold office for a period of three years subject to reappointment for one further period of three years;

(5) In appointing the members of the Bureau, the Authority shall endevour to ensure that half of the members are women.

(6) Every substantive member of the Bureau shall have a suitable alternate member appointed by the Authority.

(7) The alternate member specified in subsection (6) shall act as a member of the Medical Bureau only when the substantive member to whom he or she is alternate is unable to exercise his or her functions on the Medical Bureau by reason of illness, absence from Zimbabwe or other cause.

(8) The Bureau may meet for the dispatch of business in line with the terms and conditions set out by the Authority.

(9) Three members of the Bureau excluding the ex-officio member shall form a quorum at any meeting.

(10) At every meeting of the Bureau the chairperson shall chair the meeting and in his or her absence, the vice chairperson shall be the chair.

(11) The decision of the majority of members of the Bureau present at any meeting shall constitute the decision of the Bureau:

Provided that, in the event of an equality of votes at any such meeting, the chairperson at the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his or her deliberate vote.

(12) The Authority may invite other medical specialist to assist in the functions of the Bureau.

6 Duties of Bureau

(1) The Bureau shall—

(a) make such recommendations as by this Act are required to be made by it;

(b) conduct or direct and control all medical examinations under this Act;

(c) issue certificates to workers under this Act;

(d) grant permission in writing to any person who is suffering or has suffered from occupational diseases to enter any place or premises where a hazardous occupation is carried on and to attach to such permission such conditions at it may think fit;

(e) upon finding any person to have suffered or to be suffering from occupational diseases, certify that fact to the Authority.

(2) The Bureau is authorised to perform any medical examination and to issue any medical certificates and to give any decision or express any findings on any medical question for the purposes of this Act, and may base any such certificate, decision or finding upon facts ascertained by the Bureau itself or by a member thereof or by an approved medical practitioner or by any other person who, in its opinion, is qualified to ascertain those facts.

7 Remuneration of Bureau

A member of the Bureau shall be paid out of the Authority funds such allowance as approved by the Authority.

8 Summoning and examining of witnesses by Bureau

(1) The Bureau, in the performance of any duty or the exercise of its functions, shall have power to—

(a) summon and examine under oath any witnesses;

(b) call for the production of and authorise the inspection of any relevant documents.

(2) Summons issued in the exercise of the powers of the Bureau may call upon any person who, in the opinion of the Bureau, may be able to give material information concerning the matter under investigation or whom the Bureau suspects or believes has in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control any record, which has any bearing on the matter under investigation to appear before the Bureau at a time and place to be specified in the summons to be interrogated or to produce that record, document or thing.

(3) The Bureau may retain for examination any relevant documents produced in pursuance of summons referred to in subsection (2).

(4) Summons issued in terms of this section shall be served in the prescribed manner.

(5) The chairperson at a meeting of the Bureau at which any witness appears, whether the witness has been served with summons or not, shall have power to administer an oath to the witness and may require him or her to produce any record, document or thing in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control.

(6) The Bureau at which any witness appears and any member of the Bureau present at the meeting may put any question to the witness.

(7) The interrogation of any witness under this section shall be privately conducted unless the Bureau decides otherwise:

Provided that—

(a) at the request of any witnesses the interrogation of that witness shall be privately conducted;

(b) the Bureau may, in its discretion and with the consent of the witness, authorise the presence of any specified person at the interrogation of that witness.

(8) If a person being duly summoned under this section fails without sufficient cause to attend at the time and place specified in the summons or to remain in attendance until excused from attendance by the chairperson of the Bureau or if any person, when lawfully required to do so under this section, without sufficient cause, refuses to be sworn as a witness or fails, without sufficient cause, to answer fully and satisfactorily to the best of his or her knowledge and belief all questions lawfully put to him or her to produce relevant documents in his or her possession or custody or under his or her control, he or she shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both to such fine and such imprisonment.

(9) Any witness who, after having been sworn in, gives a false answer to any question put to him or her under this section or makes a false statement on any matter knowing that answer or statement to be false or not knowing or believing it to be true shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or both to such fine and such imprisonment.

(10) Any person summoned in terms of this section to appear before the Bureau may, if the Bureau is satisfied that he or she has, by reason of his or her appearance in obedience to the summons, suffered any pecuniary loss or has been put to any expense, be paid out of the Authority funds—

(a) any allowance as may be prescribed by the Minister; or

(b) the amount of such loss and such expense;

whichever is the lesser.

(11) Any person who willfully hinders the chairperson or any member of the Bureau in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him or her by this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level five or imprisonment for a period not exceeding six months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

9 Decision of Bureau to be binding

(1) On all purely medical questions the decisions of the Bureau shall, subject to section (8), be accepted by the Authority or by any person for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A person who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Bureau given in respect of himself or herself may, if his or her own medical advisor was not heard by the Bureau in connection with that decision, apply in writing and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Bureau to reconsider his or her case.

(3) Upon an application being made to it in terms of subsection (2) the Bureau shall afford the medical advisor of the applicant an opportunity of being heard by the Bureau and shall thereafter reconsider its decision in relation to the applicant.

(4) A person who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Bureau made in terms of subsection (3) may appeal to the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board established in section 32.

PART III

SAFETY AND HEALTH SERVICES IN WORKPLACE

10 Occupational Health Services

(1) The Department shall take necessary measures to ensure that every employer and employee is kept informed of and adequately advised on matters which they ought to take reasonable steps concerning the safeguarding and improvement of the health of workers and persons at the workplace.

PART V

REGISTRATION AND CONTROL OF WORKPLACES

17 Registration of workplaces

(1) No person shall occupy or use a workplace premise unless he or she is the holder of a registration certificate or a provisional registration certificate issued in terms of this Act.

(2) Any person occupying or who intends to occupy a workplace premise shall make an application for registration of a workplace premise accompanied with the prescribed particulars and plans to the Authority in the prescribed form subject to the payment of a prescribed fee.

(3) As soon as practicable after receipt of an application and the particulars and plans referred to in subsection (2) and after consultation with the local authority concerned, if any, the Authority shall—

(a) register the premises in respect of which the application is made by issuing a registration certificate in the prescribed form, specifying the activity in respect of which the workplace premise is registered, the name of the employer and any other prescribed particulars; or

(b) refuse to register the premises on all or any of the following grounds—

(i) that the premises are unsuitable in terms of the regulations for use as a workplace premise;

(ii) that, subject to section 24(2) of the Regional, Town and Country Planning Act [Chapter 29:12], the activity to be carried on in the workplace premise or the siting of the workplace premise would be in contravention of any approved scheme, operative regional plan, operative master plan or operative local plan as defined in that Act;

(iii) that the applicant has not obtained any licence or permit required under any other enactment in respect of the operations to be carried on the premises; or

(c) register a portion of the premises in the manner prescribed in paragraph (a) and, on the ground of prescribed unsuitability, refuse to register the remaining portion.

(4) Whenever the Authority has refused to register the whole or any portion of the premises in respect of which application has been made, the Authority may issue a provisional workplace premise permit in the prescribed form in respect of the whole or any specified portion of the premises which the Authority has refused to register, to be valid for a period to be stated in the permit, and subject to such conditions as the Authority may specify.

(5) The Authority may in terms of the regulations at any time by notice in writing to the employer of a workplace premise vary any period, prescribed particulars or conditions specified in a registration certificate or provisional workplace premise permit.

(6) After the registration of any workplace premises under this Act, no person shall effect or cause to be effected any structural or other alterations to such premises without the written prior approval of the Authority. If any such alteration is commenced without such approval, the Authority may, by notice in writing to the employer, cancel the registration certificate, whereupon the premises shall cease to be registered as a workplace premise under this Act.

(7) Any person who contravenes subsection (6) shall be liable to a category 1 civil penalty as specified in the First Schedule.

(8) If the employer of a workplace premise loses the registration certificate or the provisional workplace premise permit or a duplicate registration certificate or duplicate provisional workplace premise permit issued to him or her under this section, he or she shall, not later than fourteen days after the discovery of such loss, obtain a duplicate registration certificate or duplicate provisional workplace premise permit, as the case may be, from the Authority upon payment of the prescribed fee.

(9) The employer of a workplace premise shall display the registration certificate or provisional workplace premise permit issued to him or her in terms of this section in a conspicuous place on the workplace premises.

(10) Any person who contravenes subsection (9) shall be liable to a category 1 civil penalty as specified in the First Schedule.

18 Register of workplace premises

The Authority shall keep a register of workplace premises (in hard or electronic form or both) in which he or she shall cause to be entered such particulars in relation to every workplace premises required to be registered under this Act as he or she may consider necessary.

19 Transfer and surrender of certificate of registration

(1) A registration certificate issued may, with the approval of the Authority, be transferred by the employer of the workplace concerned to another person intending to be the employer.

(2) If the employer of a registered workplace premise ceases to use the premises as a workplace, the premises shall, unless the registration certificate has in terms of subsection (1) been transferred to another employer, forthwith cease to be a registered workplace premise, and the employer shall, within seven (7) days of his or her ceasing to use the premises as a workplace, notify the Authority in writing thereof and return the registration certificate to the Authority:

Provided that, in the event of the death or insolvency of any person or the liquidation or winding-up of any company which is an employer of a workplace premise, the appointed trustee, liquidator or executor may continue to occupy such workplace premise for a period not exceeding three (3) months after such appointment and for any additional period authorised in writing by the Authority.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be liable to a category 2 civil penalty as specified in the First Schedule.

20 Submission of plans for building or alteration of building

(1) No person shall—

(a) effect any structural or other alterations to any workplace premise registered as such under this Act; or

(b) erect or cause to be erected any building for use as a workplace premise; or

(c) alter or add to any existing building not registered as a workplace premise under this Act with the intention of using such building or a portion thereof as a workplace premise;

unless he or she has submitted to the Authority, in duplicate, plans in the prescribed form of the site and of the proposed building, alterations or additions, together with the prescribed particulars and obtained Authority's approval.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be liable to a category 2 civil penalty as specified in the First Schedule.

(3) The Authority shall advise the person submitting such plans and particulars whether he or she considers that—

(a) the proposed structural or other alterations to any workplace premise registered as such under this Act would or would not result in such workplace premise being unsuitable for use as a workplace premise in respect of the occupation which is specified in the registration certificate for such workplace premise; or

(b) the proposed building or additions or the building altered in the manner proposed would or would not be suitable for use as a workplace premise of the nature proposed:

Provided that whenever in terms of any enactment such plans require the approval of a local authority or an officer of a local authority, the Authority shall consult such local authority or officer before expressing his or her opinion.

(4) If the Authority considers that—

(a) the proposed structural or other alterations to any workplace premise registered as such under this Act would result in such workplace premise being unsuitable for use as a workplace premise in respect of the occupation which is specified in the registration certificate for such workplace premise; or

(b) the proposed building or additions or the building altered in the manner proposed would not be suitable for use as a workplace premise of the nature proposed:

it shall give the person submitting such plans and particulars the reasons for his or her opinion.

(5) Where an application is made to any local authority or officer of any local authority for the approval, in terms of any enactment, of any plans for the erection, rebuilding or alteration of any building used or intended to be used for a workplace premise, such local authority or officer, as the case may be, shall submit such plans to the Authority for examination, and shall not approve such plans unless the Authority has notified the local authority or officer, as the case may be, in writing that it considers the building will be suitable for use as a workplace premise of the nature proposed.

21 Machinery safety and registration

(1) All machinery and equipment shall be subject to examination and inspection by an inspector appointed in terms of section 23.

(2) No person shall use prescribed machinery without a valid registration certificate or provisional registration certificate issued by the Authority.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsection (2) shall be liable to a category 3 civil penalty as specified in the First Schedule.

22 Register and notification of occupational accidents and diseases

(1) Every employer shall keep in the form and manner prescribed an accident register and shall record in such register the particulars of any accident which he or she is required to notify in terms of subsection (3).

(2) Every employer shall retain any register kept in terms of subsection (1) for a period not less than fifty years subsequent to the last date upon which an entry was made therein and shall, on demand by an inspector made at any reasonable time during the said period, produce such register for inspection.

(3) Whenever any incident or accident occurs in a workplace or on premises where structural work is being performed or in connection with machinery and such an incident or accident causes loss of human life or injury to an employee which results or likely to result in his or her absence from work for three (3) days or more or injury to any person not employed on the premises, the employer of the workplace, as the case may be, shall, as soon as possible thereafter in the manner and in the form prescribed notify the Authority in writing of the accident or incident and of the prescribed particulars.

(4) Every employer shall keep in the form and manner prescribed a disease register and shall record in such register the particulars of any disease which he or she is required to notify in terms of subsection (6).

(5) Every employer shall retain any register kept in terms of subsection (4) for a period of fifty (50) years subsequent to the last date upon which an entry was made therein and shall, on demand by an inspector made at any reasonable time during the said period, produce such register for inspection.

(6) Whenever any employee suffers from any disease at the workplace, the employer, shall, as soon as possible thereafter in the manner and in the form prescribed notify the Authority in writing of the disease and of the prescribed particulars.

(7) Any person who contravenes this section shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level fourteen (14) or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five (5) years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

PART VI

ENFORCEMENT

23 Appointment of inspectors

(1) For the purpose of assisting the Director to exercise the functions of his or her department, the Authority may appoint as inspectors—

(a) any of its employees; or

(b) subject to the Public Service Act [Chapter 16:04], any members of the Public Service; or

(c) any other person who, in the Authority's opinion, has the necessary experience,qualifications or skill to exercise all the functions of an inspector or any such particular function, as the case may be.

(2) The Authority may appoint a body corporate as an inspector in terms of subsection (1) and where it does so all officers and employees of the body corporate who are designated by the body corporate head shall be inspectors.

(3) The Authority shall provide every inspector with a document identifying him or her as an inspector, and he or she shall produce it on request.

24 Powers of Inspectors

(1) An inspector may, for the purposes of ascertaining whether the provisions of this Act are being complied with—

(a) without previous notice, at any time enter any workplace;

(b) while he or she is on the workplace or at any other reasonable time require from any person the production then and there, or at a reasonable time and place fixed by the inspector, of the registration certificate or provisional workplace permit, if any, issued in respect of the premises or of any book, notice, record, list or other document which by this Act is required to be kept or displayed;

(c) at any reasonable time and at any place require from any person who has the possession or custody or control of any such book, notice, record, list or other document the production thereof then and there, or at a reasonable time and place fixed by the inspector;

(d) examine and make extracts from and copies of such books, records, lists or documents and may require from any person an explanation of any entries therein and may seize any such books, records, lists or documents as in the inspector's opinion may afford evidence of any offence under this Act;

(e) take or remove for purposes of analysis—

(i) samples of any substance produced, used, handled or stored on the premises;

(ii) equipment or machinery used or stored on the premises;

Provided that the employer shall be notified of any samples, equipment or machinery so taken or removed; and take with him or her on to any premises an interpreter or other assistant;

(f) take with him or her a police officer if he or she has reasonable cause to foresee or encounter any serious obstruction in the execution of his or her duty;

(g) as regards any premises which he or she has power to enter, direct that those premises or any part of them, or anything therein, shall be left undisturbed (whether generally or in particular respects) for so long as is reasonably necessary for the purpose of any examination or investigation;

(h) in the case of any equipment or machinery found in any premises which he or she enters, being any equipment or machinery which appears to him or her to have caused or to be likely to cause danger to safety or health, cause it to be dismantled or subjected to any process or test (but not so as to damage or destroy it unless this is in the circumstances necessary).

(2) Any employer shall at all reasonable times furnish such facilities as are required by the inspector for entering the premises and for the exercise of his or her powers under subsection (1).

(3) For the purposes of this section, an interpreter shall, while acting under the lawful direction of the inspector he or she accompanies, be deemed to be an inspector.

(4) An inspector may question any person, either alone or in the presence of any other person, as he or she thinks fit, with respect to matters dealt with in this Act.

(5) An inspector shall perform the functions imposed and duties conferred upon him or her by this Act subject to such general or special instructions as the Authority may from time to time issue.

(6)The procedure for taking of samples referred to this section shall be as prescribed.

(7) Every employer of any workplace intended to be entered by an inspector shall at all reasonable times furnish such facilities as are required by the inspector for entering the premises to exercise his or her powers under subsection (1).

(8) Subject to this section, anything required to be done by the inspector in terms of this section shall be of full force and effect until it is withdrawn.

25 Powers of entry and search

(1) An inspector appointed or designated in terms of this Act shall have unlimited and unrestricted access to enter and inspect any workplace without warrant or the consent of the employer or occupier thereof (but subject to the production on demand of an identity document issued by the Authority), if he or she has reasonable grounds for believing that—

(a) the inspection, entry or search is necessary in the interests of safety and health; or

(b) the inspection, search or entry is necessary for the prevention, investigation or detection of an offence under this Act, or for the seizure of any equipment or machinery or the taking of a sample of any substance which is the subject matter of such an offence or evidence relating to such an offence.

(2) Any person who—

(a) hinders, obstructs or resists an inspector or police officer in the performance of any function in terms of this Act; or

(b) fails or refuses to produce any document or thing when required to do so by an inspector or police officer in terms of this Act; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level fourteen or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

26 Investigations of accidents by inspectors

(1) Whenever in or about a workplace or in connection with the activities of a workplace—

(a) any person is killed or injured as a result of an accident; or

(b) any other occurrence takes place which, in the opinion of an inspector, might have led to any person being killed or injured;

an inspector shall hold an investigation into such incident or accident or occurrence.

(2) Any evidence given at such inquiry shall be taken down in writing and shall be transmitted by the Director with his or her report to the Authority and the Minister.

(3) In the case of an incident or accident causing loss of life or serious bodily injury or where the inquiry reveals a contravention of any provision of this Act, the Director shall send a copy of his or her report and of the evidence to the Police.

(4) This section shall not affect any other law relating to inquests or inquiries into the cause of death from other natural causes.

27 Disclosure of confidential information

Any inspector or, employee or agent of the Authority who—

(a) for personal gain, makes use of any information which he or she has acquired in the exercise of his or her functions and which relates to—

(i) the financial affairs of any person; or

(ii) any manufacturing process or commercial secret;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level ten or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding (5) five years or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

(b) discloses any information referred to in paragraph (a) to any person except—

(i) for the purposes of legal proceedings under this Act or any scheme; or

(ii) to the extent that it may be necessary to do so for the purposes of this Act or any scheme, to another inspector or, employee or agent of the Authority; shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level (6) six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding (1) one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

28 Improvement notice

(1) If, in the opinion of an inspector,the employer has failed to comply with this Act, he or she may—

(a) by notice in writing as provided in the Second Schedule setting forth in what respect the employer has, in his or her opinion, failed to comply with this Act or in what respect the premises are, in his or her opinion, no longer suitable for use as a workplace premise, require such employer to take the steps and make the alterations mentioned in such notice; or

(b) by a similar notice require such employer to submit to him or her a statement setting forth the steps which such employer proposes to take and, if alterations are proposed, also the proposed plans, showing the alterations which such employer proposes to make in order to comply with this Act or to render the premises suitable for use as a workplace; and

(c) by further notice in writing require such employer to take the steps and make the alterations so proposed without modification or with such modification as the inspector may determine;

within a period specified in such notice not being less than fourteen days.

(2) The period within which the requirements of any notice under subsection (1) are to be complied with may, at the request of the employer concerned, from time to time be extended by an inspector.

(3) If the employer upon whom an inspector has, in terms of this section, served notice fails within the time specified to comply with the requirements contained in the notice—

(a) he or she shall be liable to a category 2 civil penalty specified in the First Schedule; and

(b) without affecting any proceedings instituted for an offence in terms of paragraph (a), the Authority may by further notice in writing to the employer cancel the registration certificate in respect of the workplace premise concerned, whereupon the premises shall cease to be registered as a workplace premise under this Act.

(4) If the Authority establishes that the whole or part of any premises constituting a registered workplace premise are no longer suitable in terms of this Act for use as a workplace premise and cannot be rendered suitable, he or she may by notice in writing to the employer cancel the registration certificate in respect of that workplace premise, as from a date at least six months after the date of such notice, and the premises shall thereafter cease to be registered as a workplace premise under this Act.

(5) The Authority may vary or withdraw any such notice.

29 Prohibition Notice

(1) This section applies to any activities which are being or are about to be carried on by or under the control of any person, being activities to or in relation to which any relevant statutory provisions apply or will, if the activities are so carried on, apply.

(2) If as regards any activities to which this section applies the Authority is of the opinion that, as carried on or about to be carried on by or under the control of the person in question, the activities involve or, as the case may be, will involve a risk of serious personal injury, the inspector may serve on that employer a prohibition notice as specified in the Third Schedule.

(3) A prohibition notice shall—

(a) state that the inspector is of the said opinion;

(b) specify the matters which in his or her opinion give or, as the case may be, will give rise to the said risk;

(c) where in his or her opinion any matter involves or, as the case may be, will involve a contravention of any relevant statutory provision, state that he or she is of the opinion, specify the provision or provisions as to which he or she is of that opinion, and give particulars of the reasons why he or she is of that opinion; and

(d) direct that the activities to which the notice relates shall not be carried on by or under the control of the person on whom the notice is served unless the matters specified in the notice in pursuance of paragraph (b) and any associated contraventions of provisions so specified in pursuance of paragraph (c) have been remedied.

(4) A direction given in pursuance of subsection (3)(d) above shall take immediate effect if the inspector is of the opinion, and states it, that the risk of serious personal injury is or, as the case may be, will be imminent, and shall have effect at the end of a period specified in the notice in any other case.

(5) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (2), (3) or (4) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level (14) fourteen or to an imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

30 Powers of Inspector as to certain defects remediable by other competent authorities

(1) Where an inspector finds any act or default in relation to any drain, sanitary convenience, water supply, lighting, ventilation, nuisance or other matter in any workplace which is liable to be dealt with by the relevant competent authority under any enactment, he or she shall give notice thereof in writing to that authority and it shall be the duty of the relevant competent authority to make such inquiry into the subject of the notice and take such action thereon as seems to the competent authority proper for the purpose of enforcing the enactment and to inform the inspector of the proceedings taken in consequence of the notice.

(2) When an inspector finds any such act or default as aforesaid he or she may take with him or her into the workplace a competent person of the relevant competent authority.

(3) If, after notice of an act or default is given by an inspector under this section to the relevant competent authority, proceedings are not taken for punishing or remedying the act or default, the inspector may take the like proceedings for the punishment or remedying thereof as the relevant competent authority may have taken and shall be entitled to recover from that competent authority all such expenses incurred by him or her.

31 Service of notice under this Act

A notice under this Act to any person may be served on him or her personally or by posting a registered letter addressed to him or her personally or under his or her usual business name or style at his or her place of business or his or her residence.

32 Establishment of Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board

(1) Any person aggrieved by the decision of Bureau may appeal to the Minister within fourteen (14) days when the decision was made and the Minister shall, within a month of receiving the appeal establish a board, to be known as the Occupational Safety and Health Appeals Board, which shall consist of three (3) members, with each having not less than five (5) years experience, as follows—

(a) one occupational medical practitioner;

(b) one registered occupational safety and health practitioner;

and Reform) Act, [Chapter 9:23] shall apply with necessary changes to the sentencing of such guilty person.

(3) Any person who contravenes any provision of this Act or any order, notice or requirement under this Act shall be guilty of an offence and, if no special penalty is prescribed therefor, shall be liable—

(a) on a first conviction, to a fine not exceeding level seven or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding two years or to both such fine and such imprisonment;

(b) on a second or subsequent conviction, to a fine not exceeding level nine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding four years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(4) If any employer, director of body corporate, manager, agent, architect, contractor, employee of any employer of a workplace who is facing allegations of causing workplace accident either through an act or omission proves that—

(a) such act or omission occurred without the connivance or permission of the employer or builder;

(b) all reasonable steps were taken by the employer or builder to prevent any act or omission of the kind in question;

(c) it was not in any circumstance within the scope or authority or in the course of the employment of the manager, agent, architect, contractor, employee to do or to omit to do acts, whether lawful or unlawful, of the character of the act or omission charged;

Such proved facts shall constitute defence for the party proving such facts.

(5) Whenever any director of body corporate, manager, agent, architect, contractor, employee of any employer of a workplace, employer or builder does or omits to do any act which it would be an offence for the employer or builder to do or omit to do, he or she shall be liable to be convicted and sentenced in respect thereof as if he or she were the employer or builder.

(6) Any such director of body corporate, manager, agent, architect, contractor, employee may be so convicted and sentenced in addition to the employer or builder.

(7) A worker shall be found guilty of an offence if they do not comply to safety and health regulations.

34 Disclosure of certain information prohibited

(1) No person in the exercise of his or her powers under this Act, or in the performance of his or her duties shall be permitted to disclose information to any other person, except:—

(a) to a court of law or to any person who by law is empowered to compel the disclosure of such information; or

(b) to the Minister or to any person acting in the execution of this Act; in so far as such information may be necessary for the execution thereof.

(2) Any person who willfully contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level (6) six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding (1) one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

35 Locking of workplaces

(1) No employer of a workplace or employer shall, without good reason, cause or permit all the entrances to his or her workplace at the same time to be locked or otherwise rendered incapable of being opened from the outside or from inside while any work is being performed in such a workplace.

(2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level (6) six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding (1) one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

36 General prohibitions

(1) The Minister may by notice in the Gazette declare—

PART IX

GENERAL

41 Powers of Court in relation to convicted persons

Whenever a person is convicted of an offence consisting of a failure to comply with a provision of this Act or of any direction or notice issued thereunder, the court convicting him or her may, in addition to any punishment imposed on him or her in respect of that offence, issue an order requiring him to comply with the said provision within a period determined by the court.

42 Limitation of liability

(1) No member of the Board, employee or agent of the Authority shall be liable in respect of an action or thing done or omitted in good faith in the exercise of a power or the performance of a duty action or thing in terms of this Act, or in respect of anything that may result there from.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not relieve the Authority of the liability to pay compensation or damages to any person for any injury to him or her, his or her property or any of his or her interests caused by the exercise of any power conferred by this Act.

43 Accreditation of occupational safety and health service providers

(1) No person shall provide prescribed occupational safety and health service unless they are accredited by the Authority.

(2) The Authority may prescribe standards, procedures and other related matters for the accreditation of occupational safety and health service providers.

(3) Any accredited occupational safety and health service provider referred to in subsection (1) shall report in writing any occupational safety and health contraventions which require the attention of the Authority.

(4) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level 5 or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding six (6) months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

44 Approval of codes of practice by Authority

(1) For the purpose of providing practical guidance with respect to the requirements of any provision of safety and health regulations or of any existing statutory provision, the Authority may approve and issue such codes of practice as in its opinion are suitable for that purpose.

(2) The Authority may consult the Council, any government department or other bodies that appear to the Authority to be appropriate (and, in particular, in the case of a code relating to medical issues the Ministry of Health) and consult such government departments and other bodies, if any, as in relation to any matter dealt with in the code.

(3)Where a code of practice is approved by the Authority under subsection (1), the Authority shall issue a notice in writing—

(a) identifying the code in question and stating the date on which its consideration by the Authority is to take effect; and

(b) specifying the grounds for which the code may be approved or rejected.

(4) The Authority may—

(a) from time to time, revise the whole or any part of any code of practice prepared by it or some other persons in pursuance of this part;

(b) approve any revision or proposed revision of the whole or any part of any code of practice approved under this section;

and the provisions of subsections (2) and (3), shall with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the approval of any revision under this subsection as they apply in relation to the approval of a code of practice under subsection (1).

(5) The Authority may at any time withdraw its approval from any code of practice approved under this section, but before seeking such consent, the authority shall consult the same government departments and other bodies as it would be required to consult under subsection (2) if it were proposing to approve the code.

(6) Where under subsection (5), the Authority withdraws its approval from any code of practice approved under this section, the Authority shall issue a notice in writing identifying the code in question and stating the date on which its approval of it is to cease to have effect.

45 Appeals against decisions of Authority

(1) Any person who is aggrieved by any decision of the Authority may, within fourteen days of the date of such decision, lodge an appeal in the prescribed form and manner.

(2) Appeals in respect of a decision, order or action of the Authority shall be made to any magistrate of the province appointed for the purpose of this section by the Minister responsible for justice, the Chief Magistrate or the provincial magistrate of the province in which the workplace is situated or, in respect of a requirement or decision under any of the other sections mentioned in subsection (1), to the Administrative Court.

(3) The Administrative Court or the magistrate, as the case may be, (hereinafter in this section called the court) shall confirm the decision of the Authority or give such other decision as in its opinion the Authority ought to have given and, for the purpose of this Act, the court's decision shall be deemed to be the decision of the Authority given on the date on which the court gives such decision.

46 Power of Minister to issue directives

(1) The Minister may give the Authority such general directions relating to the policy the Authority is to observe in the exercise of its functions as the Minister considers to be necessary in the national interest, which policy directions must—

(a) not be inconsistent with any provision of this Act; and

(i) be issued in good faith, apply prospectively and not retrospectively, and be of general applicability; in particular the policy directions—

(ii) must not be issued in relation to any particular application or appeal pending before the Authority and must not apply so as to influence or direct the Authority on the outcome of any particular application, appeal or other matter that is being considered by the Authority immediately before the directions are issued, or

(iii) must not prejudice the application of the rules of natural justice by the Authority in the exercise of its quasi-judicial functions;

(b) clearly delimit the scope of their application and must otherwise not be vague or ambiguous in their terms; and

(c) clearly express the national interest at stake;

(d) must be clear (whether expressly or by necessary implication) that they apply or are in force for a fixed or indefinite period, or that they expire on the happening of any event.

47 Regulations

(1) The Minister may by regulations prescribe all matters which by this Act are required or permitted to be prescribed or which, in his or her opinion, are necessary or convenient to be prescribed for the better carrying out of or giving effect to this Act.

(2) Regulations made in terms of subsection (1) may provide for—

(a) licensing requirements;

(b) registration and certification of workplaces;

(c) designating registrable equipment and machinery;

(d) prescribing health and welfare facilities at the workplace;

48 Repeal of Cap. 14:08 and Cap. 15:08, transitional provisions and savings

(1) In this section—

"repealed Acts" means the Pneumonoconiosis Act [Chapter 15:08] and the Factories and Works Act [Chapter 14:08];

"effective date" means the date upon which this Act becomes operational.

(2) Subject to this section, the Pneumonoconiosis Act [Chapter 15:08] and the Factories and Works Act [Chapter 14:08] are repealed.

(3) Any regulations, rules or by-laws which were made by the Minister under the repealed Acts and which were in force immediately before the effective date of this Act shall continue in force as if they had been made by the Minister under the appropriate provision of this Act.

(4) Any order, policy, notice, application, exemption, approval, permission or other thing which was lawfully made, granted, given, issued, done or commenced in terms of the repealed Acts and which, immediately before the effective date, had or was capable of acquiring legal effect, shall continue to have, or be capable of acquiring, as the case may be, the same effect as if it had been made, granted, given, issued, done or commenced, as the case may be, under the appropriate provision, if any, of this Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE (SECTION 15, 17,19,20,21 and 28)

CIVIL PENALTY ORDERS

ARRANGEMENT OF PARAGRAPHS

Section

1. Interpretation in First Schedule.
2. Power of Inspector to issue civil penalty orders and categories thereof.
3. Service and enforcement of civil penalties and destination of proceeds thereof.
4. Limitation on issuance and enforcement of civil penalty orders.
5. Civil penalties to be paid in foreign currency by certain defaulting workplaces or miners.
6. When hearings on question whether to serve civil penalty orders may be held.
7. Evidentiary provisions in connection with civil penalty orders.

Interpretation in First Schedule

1. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires—

"citation clause", in relation to a civil penalty order, is the part of the order in which the Inspector names the defaulter and cites the provision of this Act in respect of which the default was made or is alleged, together with (if necessary) a brief statement of the facts constituting the default;

"civil penalty register" means the register referred to in paragraphs 2, 3 and 6;

("Evidentiary provisions in connection with civil penalty orders");

"continuing default" means a default in complying with any statutory obligation or duty which is continuous in nature at the time it is detected and of which the remediation consists exclusively or primarily in ceasing to do the action complained of;

"corporate defaulter" means a defaulter which is a company, syndicate or other corporate person (and includes a partnership for the purpose of paragraph 3(3) and (6);

"date of issuance", in relation to the service of a civil penalty order, means the date on which it is served;

"defaulter" means the person on account of whose default a civil penalty order is served, and includes an alleged defaulter;

"level", in relation to a fine, means a level on the standard scale;

"officer", in relation to a corporate defaulter, means a member of its board or other governing body (by whatever name called), and if there is no such board or governing body, any employee or agent of the corporate defaulter acting on behalf of the corporate defaulter;

"standard scale" means the standard scale of fines referred to in section 280 of the Criminal Law Code the thereto;

"penalty clause", in relation to a civil penalty order, is the part of the order that fixes the penalty to be paid by the defaulter, and "fixed penalty clause" and "cumulative penalty clause" shall be construed accordingly;

"remediation clause" in relation to a civil penalty order, is the part of the order that stipulates the remedial action to be taken by the defaulter;

"show cause clause" in relation to a civil penalty order is the part of the order that requires the defaulter to show cause why the civil penalty order should not have been served or should be withdrawn.

Power of Inspector to issue civil penalty orders and categories thereof

2. (1) Where default is made in complying with any provision of this Act or of any regulations or order made under this Act for which a civil penalty is specified to be leviable, the Inspector may, in addition to, and without derogating from, any criminal or non-criminal penalty that may be imposed by this Act or any other law for the conduct constituting the default, serve upon the defaulter a civil penalty order of the appropriate category specified in subparagraph (2), (3), (4), (5) or (6) or any combination of such orders as the provision in question may allow.

(2) A category 1 civil penalty order provides for—

(a) a combination of a fixed penalty and a cumulative penalty over a period not exceeding ninety days for a specified completed and irremediable

default (that is to say a default in respect of which no remediation is sought by the Inspector or is possible), of which—

(i) the fixed penalty shall be the maximum amount specified for level 7 (or the penalty specified in paragraph 3, as the case may be); and

(ii) the cumulative penalty shall be a penalty of the maximum amount of level three for each day (beginning on the day after the service of a civil penalty order) during which the defaulter fails to pay the fixed penalty under paragraph (a);

(b) the suspension of the operation of the civil penalty order for a period of 48 hours from the date of its issuance to enable the alleged defaulter to show cause to the Inspector why the order should not have been issued, that is to say, to show that the order was issued in error:

Provided that—

(i) if no such cause is shown within that period the order shall be deemed to have been issued with effect from the beginning of such period;

(ii) if within that period it is shown that the order was issued in error the Inspector shall withdraw the order and make the appropriate notation of withdrawal in the civil penalty register.

(3) A category 2 civil penalty order provides for—

(a) a cumulative civil penalty for a specified completed but remediable default which—

(i) must be suspended conditionally upon the defaulter taking the remedial action specified in the civil penalty order immediately (that is to say, within forty-eight hours after the civil penalty is served on him or her);

(ii) upon the civil penalty becoming operative because of non-compliance with the requested remedial action, shall provide for a penalty of the maximum amount of level three for each day, not exceeding ninety days, during which the defaulter continues to be in default (beginning on the day after the last day on which the defaulter fails to take the remedial action);

(b) the suspension of the operation of the civil penalty order for a period of 48 hours from the date of its issuance to enable the alleged defaulter to show cause to the Inspector why the order should not have been issued, that is to say, to show that the order was issued in error:

Provided that—

(i) if no such cause is shown, within that period the order shall be deemed to have been issued with effect from the beginning of such period;

(ii) if within that period it is shown that the order was issued in error the Inspector shall withdraw the order and make the appropriate notation of withdrawal in the civil penalty register.

(4) A category 3 civil penalty order provides—

(a) for a combination of a fixed penalty and potentially two cumulative penalties for a specified completed but partially remediable default, of which—

(i) the fixed penalty shall be the maximum amount specified for level five; and

(ii) the cumulative penalty—

A. relating to subparagraph (i) shall be a penalty of the maximum amount of level three for each day (beginning on the day after the service of a civil penalty order) during which the defaulter fails to pay the civil penalty under subparagraph (i); and

B. relating to the taking of the specified remedial action—

I. shall be the maximum amount of level three for each day, not exceeding ninety days, that the defaulter fails to take the specified remedial action with effect from a specified date; and

II. must be suspended conditionally upon the defaulter taking the remedial action specified in the civil penalty order within the time specified in the order;

(b) the suspension of the operation of the civil penalty order for a period of 48 hours from the date of its issuance to enable the alleged defaulter to show cause to the Inspector why the order should not have been issued, that is to say, to show that the order was issued in error:

Provided that—

(i) if no such cause is shown within that period, the order shall be deemed to have been issued with effect from the beginning of such period;

(ii) if within that period it is shown that the order was issued in error, the Inspector shall withdraw the order and make the appropriate notation of withdrawal in the civil penalty register.

(5) A category 4 civil penalty order provides for—

(a) a cumulative penalty for a continuing default which—

(i) must be suspended conditionally upon the defaulter immediately (that is to say, within forty-eight hours after the civil penalty is served on him or her) ceasing the default;

(ii) upon the civil penalty becoming operative because of failure to cease the default immediately, shall be the maximum amount fixed for level six for each day during which the default continues, not exceeding a period of ninety days;

(b) the suspension of the operation of the civil penalty order for a period of 48 hours from the date of its issuance to enable the alleged defaulter to show cause to the Inspector why the order should not have been issued, that is to say, to show that the order was issued in error:

Provided that—

(i) if no such cause is shown, within that period the order shall be deemed to have been issued with effect from the beginning of such period;

(ii) if within that period it is shown that the order was issued in error the Inspector shall withdraw the order and make the appropriate notation of withdrawal in the civil penalty register.

(6) A category 5 civil penalty order provides for—

(a) a combination of a fixed penalty and a cumulative penalty for a specified continuing default where the time of compliance is of the essence—

(i) both of which penalties must be suspended conditionally upon the defaulter taking the remedial action specified in the civil penalty order immediately (that is, within 24 hours of the issuance of the order, or a lesser specified time specified in the order);

(ii) which, upon the civil penalty becoming operative because of noncompliance with the requested remedial action, shall provide—

A. a fixed penalty of the maximum amount for level seven for not meeting the specified deadline; and

B. a cumulative penalty of the maximum amount of level three for each day, not exceeding ninety days during which the defaulter fails to pay the amount of the fixed penalty specified in—

I. subparagraph (i); and

II. subparagraph A;

(b) the suspension of the operation of the civil penalty order for a period of 24 hours from the date of its issuance to enable the alleged defaulter to show cause to the Inspector why the order should not have been issued, that is to say, to show that the order was issued in error:

Provided that—

(i) if no such cause is shown, within that period the order shall be deemed to have been issued with effect from the beginning of such period;

(ii) if within that period it is shown that the order was issued in error the Inspector shall withdraw the order and make the appropriate notation of withdrawal in the civil penalty register.

Service and enforcement of civil penalties and destination of proceeds thereof

3. (1) References to the Inspector serving upon a defaulter any civil penalty order in terms of this Act, are to be interpreted as requiring the Inspector to serve such order (or such notice) in writing to the defaulter—

(a) by hand delivery to the defaulter or his or her director, manager, secretary or accounting officer in person (or through an inspector or other person employed in the office of the Inspector, or a police officer), or to a responsible individual at the place of business of the defaulter; or

(b) by delivery through a commercial courier service to the defaulter's place of business in the workplace concerned or his or her principal office in Zimbabwe or other place of business of the defaulter; or

(c) by electronic mail address furnished by the defaulter to the Inspector; or

(d) if after diligent inquiry service of the civil penalty order by any of the foregoing means has not been made, the defaulter shall be deemed to be notified of the civil penalty order if the Inspector posts a copy of it for fourteen continuous days on the notice board at his or her Office (in which event the civil penalty order shall be deemed to be served on the defaulter on the first date of such posting):

Provided that in this case the Inspector shall also depose in an affidavit to the following facts, namely that—

(i) service of the civil penalty order could not be made by any of the means referred to in subparagraphs (a), (b), (c) or (d); and

(ii) the first date on which the copy of the civil penalty order was posted on the notice board of his or her Office; and the Inspector shall file such affidavit for record.

(2) The Inspector shall not extend the period specified in a civil penalty order for compliance therewith except upon good cause shown to him or her by the defaulter, and any extension of time so granted (not exceeding in any case 30 days) shall be noted by the Inspector in the civil penalty register.

(3) The Inspector may, if the defaulter is a corporate defaulter—

(a) in the same civil penalty order, name the corporate defaulter and every officer of the company, syndicate, other corporate person or partnership concerned as being so liable separately, or issue separate civil penalty orders in respect of the defaulter and each of the officers concerned;

(b) choose to serve the order only upon the corporate defaulter without naming the officers if, in his or her opinion (which opinion the Inspector shall note in the civil penalty register, there may be a substantial dispute of fact about the identity of the particular officer or officers who may be in default:

Provided that nothing in this subparagraph affects the default liability of officers of the defaulter mentioned in subparagraph (6).

(4) The Inspector may, in the citation clause of a single civil penalty order, cite two or more defaults relating to different provisions of this Act if the defaults in question—

(a) occurred concurrently or within a period not exceeding six months from the first default or defaults to the last default or defaults; or

(b) arose in connection with the same set of facts

(5) Where in this Act the same acts or omissions are liable to both criminal and civil penalty proceedings, the Inspector may serve a civil penalty order at any time before the commencement of the criminal proceedings in relation to that default, that is to say at any time before—

(a) summons is issued to the accused person for the prosecution of the offence; or

(b) a statement of the charge is lodged with the clerk of the magistrates court before which the accused is to be tried, where the offence is to be tried summarily; or

(c) an indictment has been served upon the accused person, where the person is to be tried before the High Court;

as the case may be, but may not serve any civil penalty order after the commencement of the criminal proceedings until after those proceedings are concluded (the criminal proceedings are deemed for this purpose to be concluded if they result in a conviction or acquittal, even if they are appealed or taken on review). (For the avoidance of doubt it is declared that the acquittal of an alleged defaulter in criminal proceedings does not excuse the defaulter from liability for civil penalty proceedings).

(6) Every officer of a corporate defaulter mentioned in the civil penalty order by name or by office, is deemed to be in default and any one of them can, on the basis of joint and several liability, be made by the Inspector to pay the civil penalty in the event that the defaulter does not pay.

(7) Upon the expiry of the ninety day period within which any civil penalty order of any category must be paid or complied with, the defaulter shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding level six or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both (in the case of a corporate defaulter, every one of its officer is liable to the penalty of imprisonment, and to the fine if the corporate defaulter fails to pay it).

(8) The amount of any civil penalty shall—

(a) be payable to the Inspector and shall form part of the Funds of the Authority; and

(b) be a debt due to the Authority and shall be sued for in any proceedings in the name of the Inspector acting for the Authority in any court of competent civil jurisdiction:

Provided that for this purpose, the court of the provincial magistrate for the location of the workplace concerned shall be deemed to have jurisdiction to hear the suit even if the monetary amount sought would otherwise exceed its prescribed jurisdiction.

(9) Proceedings in a court for the recovery of a civil penalty shall be deemed to be proceedings for the recovery of a debt as if the defaulter had acknowledged the debt in writing.

(10) If the Inspector in terms of subparagraph (8)(b) desires to institute proceedings to recover the amounts of two or more civil penalties in any court of competent civil jurisdiction, the Inspector may, after notice to all interested parties, bring a single action in relation to the recovery of those penalties if the orders relating to those penalties—

(a) were all served within the period of twelve months preceding the institution of the proceedings; and

(b) were served—

(i) on the same defaulter; or

(ii) in relation to the same default or set of defaults, whether committed by the same defaulter or different defaulters; or

(iii) on two or more defaulters whose registered offices are in the same area of jurisdiction of the court before which the proceedings are instituted.

(11) Unless the Inspector has earlier recovered in civil court the amount outstanding under a civil penalty order, a court convicting a person of an offence against subparagraph (7), may on its own motion or on the application of the prosecutor and in addition to any penalty which it may impose give summary judgement in favour of the Inspector for the amount of any outstanding civil penalty due from the convicted defaulter.

Limitation on issuance and enforcement of civil penalty orders

4. (1) No civil penalty order may be issued more than twelve months from the date when the default or alleged default occurred or ceased to occur.

(2) A single civil penalty order may be served in respect of two or more defaults committed by the defaulter within a single period not exceeding six months, but if the aggregate of such defaults results in the defaulter becoming liable to a penalty or combined penalties in excess of the equivalent of one hundred and twenty thousand United States dollars, the Inspector may select one or any combination of those defaults which will not result in the defaulter becoming so liable, while reserving the right to serve a second or further additional civil penalty orders in respect of the defaults not so selected if the defaulter does not comply with the first civil penalty order.

(3) Any amount owing under a civil penalty order is a debt owed to the State for the purposes of section 15(b) of the Prescription Act [Chapter 8:11].

Civil penalties to be paid in foreign currency by certain defaulting workplaces

5. (1) A defaulter who for a workplace shall pay any monetary penalty under a civil penalty order in United States dollars or another foreign currency at the interbank rate of exchange of the Zimbabwe dollar for the United States dollar prevailing on the day the civil penalty order is issued.

Evidentiary provisions in connection with civil penalty orders

6. (1) For the purposes of this Schedule the Inspector shall keep a civil penalty register wherein shall be recorded—

(a) the date of service of every civil penalty order, the name and the physical or registered office address of the person upon whom it was served, the civil penalty provision in relation to which the defaulter was in default, and the date on which the civil penalty order was complied with or the penalty thereunder was recovered as the case may be;

(b) if the alleged defaulter responded to the show cause clause in the civil penalty order with the result that—

(i) the order was cancelled because it was issued in error, the fact and the date of such cancellation; or

(ii) a hearing was held in accordance with paragraph 5, then—

A. a record or an adequate summary of any representations made at the hearing by way of an entry or cross-reference in, or annexure to, the register (and if recorded by way of annexure or cross-reference, the representations must be preserved for a period of at least six years from the date when they were made to the Inspector);

B. a record of the outcome of the hearing, that is to say, whether or not the civil penalty order was cancelled, and if not the date from which it was to have effect and whether a different defaulter was served with it.

(2) A copy of—

(a) any entry in the civil penalty register, and of any annexure thereto or record cross-referenced therein, authenticated by the Inspector as a true copy of the original, shall on its mere production in any civil or criminal proceedings by any person, be prima facie proof of the contents therein; or

(b) any civil penalty order that has been served in terms of this Act, authenticated by the Inspector as a true copy of the original, shall on its mere production in any civil or criminal proceedings by any person, be prima facie proof of the service of the order on the date stated therein upon the defaulter named therein, and of the contents of the order.
